PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello All... We have finally made it through the unpredictable 2020 and jumped into 2021. My hope is you and your family stayed well and found new ways to make the new “normal” work. The pandemic has hit close to home for me with several extended family testing positive and recovered as well as a long-time friend being positive with double-pneumonia and losing her father to COVID-19. As we continue in the pandemic, my hope is we find a way to stay connected with each other and support those in need.

We are halfway through this year in the TALP world with two virtual conferences behind us. Thanks to everyone who joined us for the Fall Board Meeting and Education Conference, hosted by El Paso LPA. The members of El Paso LPA did a great job thinking outside the box and agreeing to convert to a virtual conference. The speakers were fantastic and provided very important information. It was great to “see” so many faces. Make plans now to join us on Saturday, February 20, 2021, for a half-day CLE webinar...stay tuned for more details.

As of this writing, the 2021 Annual Meeting and Education Conference will still be held in-person in Lubbock. Lubbock LPA will continue to monitor the situation, city and state guidelines, and be ready to pivot to a virtual conference if necessary. Hopefully, we will not have to do that, but the safety of our members is most important.

I would encourage you to reach out to members outside your chapter to check-in and see how they are doing. Emails are great, but I am sure a nice card would also be appreciated.

As always, if you ever have any questions or need to chat, feel free to contact me or any other Executive Committee member...we are here to help.

Happy New Year and may you continue to “Light the Way with Texas ALP.”

Tina

TALP HUGS

AND NOW IT'S 2021

As we enter a new year, I am sure most of us are looking forward to returning to “normal.” But I would like to challenge you to look back over this most difficult year of 2020 and see how you have grown through your limitations and struggles. You, your friends, and your loved ones may have suffered illness, death, financial difficulties, and mental and emotional stress. You may have often felt overwhelmed by the twists and turns that your life has taken as a result of COVID-19.

Rather than being trapped by these feelings, hopefully you can shift your perspective from a negative viewpoint and begin to focus on positive effects such as:

- leaning on others (even if through Zoom or other virtual means) for support and comfort;
- appreciating the beauty of life itself;
- drawing closer to family and loved ones;
- acknowledging those who have continued doing their essential jobs in ways that may be harmful to them; and
- realizing the unexpected ways in which our needs have been met.

As we move forward, let us cherish our days and not just wish for better ones. Let us find our blessings and opportunities in the midst of our storms. Let us focus on our blessings and seek out the good as we walk through the bad. Let us live our lives in the fullness of joy.

I have a sign in my home office which I bought after my husband passed away thirteen years ago. It reads: Life isn't about waiting for the storm to pass.... It's about learning to dance in the rain. Let's do it!

I will leave you with this thought: Enjoy the little things in life because one day you will look back and realize they were the big things.

If you or someone you know needs a hug, please let me know by sending an email to hugs@talp.org. After all, we are in this together!

Hi Ya'll. It is my pleasure to serve as TALP Secretary for the 2020-2021 year. It has been a learning experience but I am loving it. Special thanks to our EC for making me feel welcome. Now we look forward to the Annual Conference hosted by Lubbock. While we are still in a period of uncertainty, I really hope we can be in-person for this one. I miss seeing all your beautiful faces.

I am committed to TALP. I believe in what we stand for....and what we are doing. If at any time anyone needs to reach out to me (michelle_mcdaniel@me.com), please do not hesitate. I am always available.

Helene Wood's kitties!

Congrats El Paso on doing a great job hosting a virtual conference!

THAT AIN'T NOT RIGHT

Know Their Origin

English has some bizarre colloquialisms (idioms, popular expressions) – which seemingly make little sense to anybody – yet many of which you likely use yourself. Here are the original derivations of just three of them:

Can't do something to save my life – A roundabout way of saying you're completely inept at something. Typically used in self-deprecation.

Example: I'm the last person you want on your team, I can't (run/throw/catch/etc.) to save my life.

Origin: Antony Trollope first used this expression in his book Kellys and O'Kellys in 1848.

Turn a blind eye – To pretend not to have noticed something.

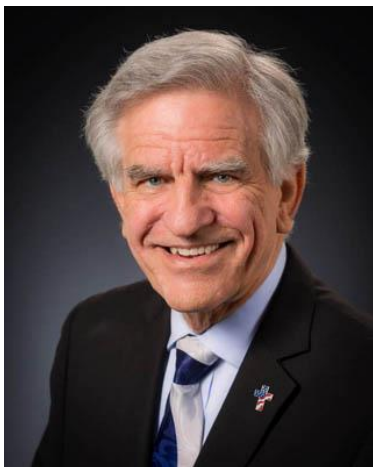

Example – You made an odd decision, and I chose to turn a blind eye.

Origin: Attributed to English naval hero Admiral Horatio Nelson who, during a battle, deliberately raised his telescope to his blind eye, thereby assuring his inability to see any signal from his superiors to withdraw from the battle.

Head in the clouds – Describes someone being unrealistic, not grounded in reality.

Example – If you think you're getting this job, you've got your head in the clouds!

Origin: In use since the mid 1600's referencing a fantasist – since having one's head in the clouds is clearly impossible.

This material is provided by Hiatt Ives, speaker, consultant, and author of That Ain't Not Right–The Use and Abuse of the English Language.

TALP 2021 Annual Meeting and Education Conference

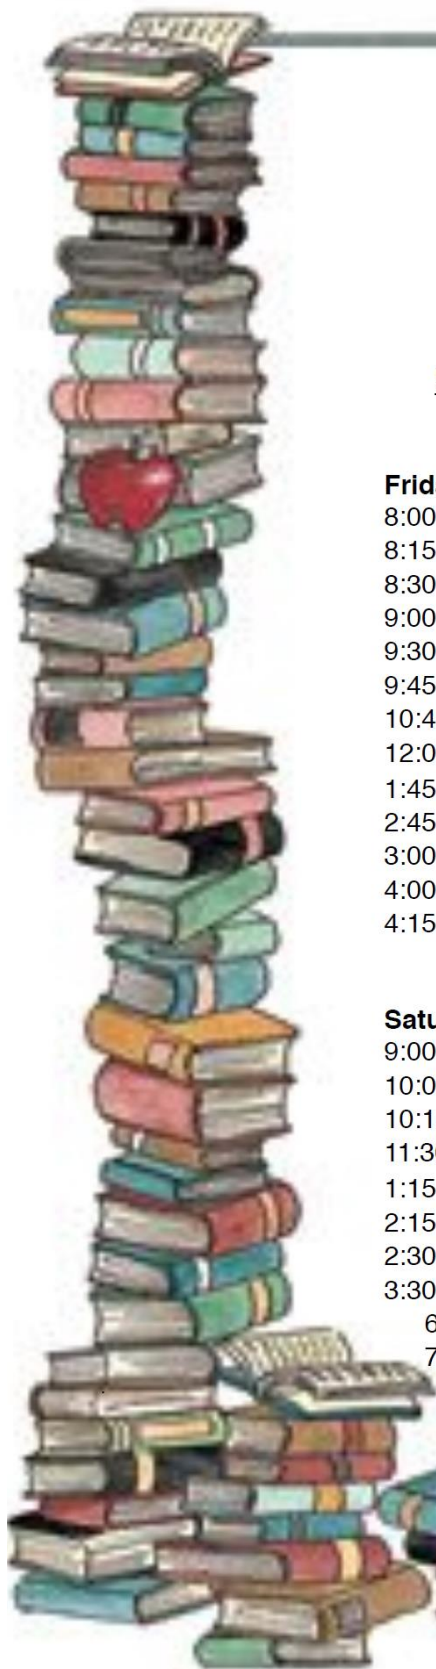

Can you say we have been in a weird chapter of TALP? Who knows what will happen or where we will go for here!

In the meantime, Lubbock Legal Professionals Association is planning and organizing for the Annual Meeting and Education Conference on April 16 and 17, 2021. MCM Elegante' will be the location. As many of you will recall, they are a great host and took care of our needs. Many speakers have already agreed to participate in person and/or provide their topics remotely.

Lubbock offers many sightseeing opportunities including museums, music, shopping, and dining. Throughout the city are many displays of art, including at Texas Tech campus. Next door to the hotel, a new memorial will be opening the spring of 20 21 honoring the lives lost in the Lubbock tornado.
